DEATH. On the 16th June, suddenly, George Oswald Scorr, of 5. Woodville-gardens, Ealing, formerly manager of the Oriental Bank Corporation at Hong-

ping on the West River illustrates once more the growing danger under which trafic on that waterway is conducted. Formerly the usual plan adopted by the pirates was for a portion of the gang to take passage by the vessel it was intended to rob and ing is the programme. upon reaching a point previously agreed upon to rise and overpower the erew and passengers and transfer the booty to boats waiting. The small steamers plying on the river have now adopted the use of gratings to confine the passengers below and prewent their agrees to the upper deck, after the plan adopted by the Canton and Macao Embassy, as Official Delegate to the Intersteamers since the memorable Spark tragedy. This plan, however, has not proved sufficient to baulk the pirates, who now attack from the outside, using an armed launch for the purpose. If peaceable merchant stemmers are to be exposed to attack in this 🧩 manuscrit is clear that They can do little to protect themselves, and the pirates, enconvaged by their success and immunity from punishment, may possibly sometime feel inclined to fly at higher game than the small West River steamers. It is essential that this danger to navigation and trade should be removed, and as it appears useless' to expect the Chinese to do anything effective in that direction themselves it is for the foreign Powers-primarily Great Britain as the Power most immediately interested -- to take the matter in hand and police the river with their own gunboits or organise a flotillato operate under the Chinese flag but to be controlled, commanded, and officered by Europeans. Some time ago the Vicarov of Canton detached several tornedo bouts for this service, but instead of hurting out the pirates they have devoted themselves to the more remunerative task of towing junks. It has been alleged also that some of the native damage has also been done to the vessel officials are either in active league with the pirates or find it to their interest not to interfere with them. This charge appears to | Moane, who is employed in the Naval Xard, be well founded, for the pirates' resorts are well known and yet nothing is done to cope with them. One of their head centres is said be was sitting at the door of the house of a Kongmoon, near which the latest piracy occurred, and it seems incredible that a times on the head. Defendant then ran away, pirate launch armed with cannon and put out without authorities being well aware that was on no ordinary errand of trade, or that the could return to dispose of her booty without the same authorities knowing full well that the property was stolen, the adjoining provinces was dealt with in by Chinese calling out to him - Defendant was one of the resolutions which the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce sent to Lord CHARLES BERESFORD in November last. The resolution read :-- "In view of

"provinces". The Chamber would not be going beyond its functions if it took the plan for dealing with the evil. The work of suppression should naturally be done at the cost of Chiua, and the simplest plan would probably be to require the Viceroy of Canton to allow a flotilla to be organised under European control. A great deal-

It is astonishing what a number of " fastest vessels affoat" them seem to be about. The reporters on the consion of the recent trip of the Anchone tell us that she is the fustest vessel afloat. Her trial trip speed was 31.159 knots-a very fast performance. It has been said for the Chinese tornedo-bont destroyers that receiftly steamed from Port Said to Colombo without coaling at Aden that they have a speed of thirty-three knots. This is possibly apoeryphal, and has never been given on competent authority. But it is not long since that a destroyer the Albatros -did thirty-four for the British Navy, and this we believe is the record. London and China Express.

SUPREME COURT Uniminal Sessions.

BEFORE HIS HONOUR W. MEIGH GOOD-MAN (ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE.) THE CHARGE AGAINST A BANK SUROFF. Young Choung U. alles Yeung Kwan, formerly shroff at the Hongkong and Shanghui Bank, was charged with falsification of accounts.

The jury was composed of Messrs. A. I Silverthorne, A. C. Oldort, A. Abraham, J. Bantista, D. Kennedy, F. F. dos Santos, and Willy, von Uffel.

Mr. Francis, Q.C. (instructed by Messes. Johnson, Stokes, and Master appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Slade (instructed by Messrs Descon and Hastings) for defendant. The evidence for the prosecution was continued. On it completion. Mr. Sinde addressed the jury for the defence.

His Lordship, in the course of his summing up, said-This is a charge brought under Orinance 7 of 1890. Ordinance 7 of 1890, to amend the law with reference to the falsification of accounts, simply introduces into this colony the English Act of 1875, which was introduced in England by Sir John Lubbock, owing to certain defects formerly existing in I the Epglish law, (See p. 186, vol. I of Stephen's history of the Criminal Law of England. When I arrived in the colony as Attorney. General the same defects existed in the law Hougkong and if I remember rightly I not this Ordinance passed within two or three months from my arrival, making our law in this respect the same as that of England. The Ordinance recited that it is expedient to amend the law so as to punish the falsification by clerks, officers, servants and others, of their omployers accounts, books, writings, or doon-ments. It is not intended to apply to forgerias or inisitications by others than clerks, officers, servants, etc., or in regard to books and documents other than those belonging to or in the possession of such employers. Refore you can convict the accused you must be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt (a) That the accused was a clerk, officer, or servant of the Bank when he made the entries: (b) That they were false. (c) That the book belonged to the Bank; (d) That he made the false entries: (c) That he made thom with intent to defraud. .The jury retired to consider their verdict at ten minutes to four, and on their return five minutes afterwards the Foreman (Mr. Silverthorn) announced that they ununimously found defendant guilty on the first count and not guilty on the other two. Mr. Blade reminded his Lordship that defendant was already andergoing six months' imprisonment for the theft of a bank book, and bo world like his Lordship to take that into

Mr. Francis-I would also ask your Lordship to take it into consideration. His Lordship, addressing defendant, said-You have been found guilty by the jury of having made false entries in this savings bank book. They did not believe your ingenious account of how came to make these felse entries. I must assume that these entries were made by you in your employer's book at a time when you were a trusted employee of the Bank; but I

His Lordship said he thought he need not take the other sentance into consideration.

THE DISTURBANCE NEAR UN LOONG

PROCEEDINGS AT THE MAGISTRACY.
At the Magistracy yesterday afternoon the three Chinamen who were arrested for being concerned in the disturbance at Un Loong on Wednesday were brought forward, two Chinamen being complainants. Captain Superintendent May said-The facts of the case are as follows: The two complainants went with Mr. Dauby and certain other gentlemen to view some land in the Un Loong district. Whon they got there they were abused by the inhabitants of neighbouring villege, who used some violence, especially towards the two complainants. In instice to these villagers . I must say ownership of this land, and defendants' excuse | Carry forward to new account....... for their conduct is that these complainants

His Worship-Assault occasioning bedily The Captain Superintendent-1 would not go so far as that, because really the bodily harm was not of such a nature as to justify the nature as that. His Worship-Then a charge of common assault will be sufficient? The Captain Superintendent-Yes. Wong Yan Fon said that on the 19th inst. he went with certain European gentlemen to any place called Hau Tan Shan, close to Un Loong, and about three li from the Police Station. They arrived at Han Tan Shan at about noon. They went there to measure the ground. They went to measure it because it was sold on the 19th June by the Wong clan, which was the clan he belonged to. It was sold to the Kew Company. When they reached Hau Tau Shan the three defendants and others set upon them and heat them. There were between ten and twenty people there with knives, bamboo carrying poles, and sickles in their hands. Defendants and the others beat them because they refused to give them $400 as peace money. First defendant struck him with a carrying pole and second defendant with a thorn branch. The fokis of the gentleman who was survying were also struck. After that they all went to the Police Station at Tat Au Tau, where they made a complaint, Defendants came with Two of the Europeans spoke Chinese, and it was at the suggestion of one of them that defendants went to the Police Station, where they were arrested. First defendant said Han Ten belonged to him and not to complainants. Wong Pan Tuk, a farmer living noise Un the Kew company, wished to look into it.

He was a member of the Worg clan. The land was sold to the Kew Conpany by the Woug clan, the bargain money being paid yel made by pirates on the river. Nothing has on the 4th June. When they got to Han third defendant with a carrying pole. Other people were with third defendant, among them being first and second defendants. Over 20 people were there altogether, and they had knives and bamboos. He could not see whether anyone else was struck, as he was beaten too severely himself to see. No serious notice was however taken of the change in his manner so that when his first cousin. Mr. Sampson, made a casual call upon him vesterday afternoon he was surprised to find Mr. Patch lying on his bed on his left side, quite cold with a gas rubber tube lying against his face, death having evidently been caused by asphyria. The police were at: ouce summoned and the body removed to the Shantung Mortnary where Dr. Cooper made a post mortem examination this morning pending the usual formal enquiry into the cause of death. THE INQUEST.

Mr. P. S. A. Bourne, the Covener, at 11 clock this morning opened on enquiry into the circumstances attending the death of Henry Dowell Patch whose body was found on the provious evening at his quarters in the Brewery in the Markham Road as above stated.

Mr. Alexander Sampson said he was a first cousin to the doceased, and yesterday afternoon. made a kind of afternoon call upon him. knocked at the door and received no answer but subsequently gained admittance to the room whom he found there was a strong smell of gas.
